Division of Parole and Probation Regional Administrator Named Board President For Middle Atlantic States Correctional Association

Henry Alexander has been in State service for more than 35 years

TOWSON, MD (June 14, 2007)---Henry Alexander, whose Frederick-based region includes all of Western Maryland and parts of the Baltimore metropolitan area as well, has been named President of the Board for the Middle Atlantic States Correctional Association (MASCA) for 2007-09.

Founded in 1938, MASCA represents corrections and parole and probation professionals in seven states and the District of Columbia. It is an affiliate of the American Correctional Association and the American Probation and Parole Association.

Henry Alexander has been in State service for 36 years. As Region Four Administrator for the Division of Parole and Probation, he oversees 144 agents and 30 field supervisors who are responsible for more than 13,600 probationers and parolees living in communities from Baltimore County to far Western Maryland. Mr. Alexander's regional office is based in Frederick.

Says Judith Sachwald, Director of the Maryland Division of Parole and Probation; "Henry is an unsung hero, one of many in DPP whose mission is to help offenders become productive and law abiding members of society."
